Grand Knight's Message

Jeff Maschler

Jesus is Coming!

We often hear this phrase – especially the months before Christmas. (And with the 'visionary' leadership of Iran, it seems even more imminent.) But what does it really mean – and how does it affect my daily activities? How can I use this thought to help me and those I love get to heaven? How do I know if I am ready for His arrival?

Maybe the honest answer to another question can help answer some of these questions. This question was presented to me and several other Catholics at a recent Cursillo and is worth some serious reflection. It makes tangible the prospect of His arrival.

The question is: "How do you spend your free time?"

I would like to publicly thank our own Knights for their dedication to our parish and to our community. According to the letter I received from Dr. H. E. Bauer Director of Faith Formation, Butch Enderle stood in the rain cooking dogs and burgers for the St Benedict's youth/teen kickoff. And from Vicki Welsh – a big thank you to Pierre Gaudreault and John McGuire for helping paint the classrooms and hallway downstairs in the annex. God bless you and your families – and thanks for setting an example of how to spend our free time!

In my monthly quest for more proof of miracles, I ran across this article seemingly relevant: "I AM coming to you" Pentecost Miracle at St John's Church of Glastonbury.

Towards the end of the main Sunday Eucharist on the Feast of Pentecost 1993, five members of the congregation seated in different parts of the church began to 'speak in tongues'. This had never happened before in the church and none of the individuals concerned were familiar with this experience. As far as is known all were regular members of the congregation. One of the men who 'spoke in tongues' in particular was very disturbed and upset by the totally involuntary nature of the experience. At the end of the service, each separately and without any contact with the other speakers was asked to write down the meaning of the words that had been 'placed in their mouths'. In all respects, they were identical apart from slight errors in spelling.

The text read as follows:

I AM equipping you,
I AM healing you,
I AM leading you, but
UNLESS you draw near to Me I cannot feed you.
UNLESS you come to Me, I cannot heal you.
UNLESS you empty yourself, I cannot fill you.
My people, there is still hardness in your hearts;
hardness from anger, hardness caused by putting yourself in My rightful place.
REPENT of this hardness.
TURN to Me again and live.
COME that I may renew you in body, mind and spirit.
COME to Me that I may heal you.
COME to Me that I may equip you that I may send you out by the Power of My Spirit to RELEASE those bound by fear, to PROCLAIM forgiveness and to SHOW love to all people.
My children, I AM coming to you.

Viva Jesus!

Jeff
